

The World-Tilting Gospel

Embracing a Biblical Worldview and Hanging on Tight

Dan Phillips

The first generation of Christians were not popular. They were ridiculed, persecuted, yet according to Acts 17:6–7, they “turned the world upside down.” As a result, their message was communicated louder and clearer than any message before or since. Even with today’s social medias, big-name celebrities, and shiny evangelism techniques that add glitz and glamour to the gospel, today’s Christians fail to communicate as effectively as the first followers of Christ. Simply put, the early church turned the world upside down, but today’s church has been turned upside down by the world.

Believing that this shift is a result of too many Christians failing to adopt a whole-Bible worldview, author and popular blogger Dan Phillips offers an easy-to-understand, conversational, and engaging analysis of the gospel and the results it once had—and should have again. Drawing on decades of studying the Bible’s Hebrew and Greek texts, Phillips clearly draws out the Bible’s teaching of God’s eternal plan as started in Genesis and played out through each book of Scripture. Written with the same accessible tone that has made Phillips’s blogs popular to thousands of readers, The World-Tilting Gospel challenges believers to hold fast to a biblical worldview even if it makes them unpopular. “When Christians are again gripped by that gospel rather than obsessing about being liked by the world,” writes Phillips, “they will be able to turn the world upside-down again.”

About the Author: Dan Phillips (MDiv, Talbot Theological Seminary) has served as pastor in four churches and has taught seminary and college classes in New Testament studies, Hebrew, and Old Testament theology. He has preached and presented seminars on Proverbs and the Sovereignty of God, written biblical newspaper columns and tracts, and hosted a radio talk show. With an ongoing conference and pulpit ministry, Dan is most broadly known for his writing on the Pyromaniacs blog, with Phil Johnson and Frank Turk (<http://teampyro.blogspot.com>), and at his own blog, Biblical Christianity (<http://bibchr.blogspot.com>). Dan lives in Sacramento with his amazing wife, Valerie. They have four children and around six cats.

$17.99

978-0-8254-3908-7

Paperback

304 pages

Trim Size: 5.5 x 8.5

Publisher: Kregel Publications

Publication: August 2011

