

An evening prayer
as the sun sinks low:
we thank you, God,
for this world below.

An evening prayer
as the dark comes nigh:
we thank you, God,
for your heaven on high.

Dear God, hear my evening prayer:
Bless me with your love and care.

Let me dream the night away
Until it is another day.

Though tomorrow may be long,
Keep me safe from doing wrong.

May I spend the hours of light
Doing what is good and right.
