

Table of Contents for
New Wine
A Study of Transition in the Book of Acts
J. Dwight Pentecost

Introduction: Why a Transition?

- 1 Israel's Response to the Coming of the Messiah
The Gospel According to Luke
- 2 Why Restrain a Witness to the Resurrection?
Acts 1:1–11
- 3 Was Matthias a True Apostle?
Acts 1:12–26
- 4 What Is the Significance of Tongues?
Acts 2:1–13
- 5 The Relation of Joel's Prophecy to the Signs
Acts 2:14–21
- 6 Validation of Jesus' Resurrection
Acts 2:22–36
- 7 How Does "Repent and Be Baptized" Deliver from Judgment?
Acts 2:37–47
- 8 Is the Davidic Kingdom Being Reoffered to Israel?
Acts 3:1–26
- 9 Plots to Silence the Witnesses to the Resurrection
Acts 4:1–31
- 10 Why Did Ananias and Sapphira Receive Such Severe Judgments?
Acts 4:32–6:7

- 11 What in Stephen's Message Produced Such a Violent Response?
Acts 6:8–8:3
- 12 What Was Philip's Message to Gentiles?
Acts 8:4–40
- 13 Saul's Preparation to Become the Apostle to the Gentiles
Acts 9:1–31
- 14 How Could Peter Eat Unclean Food?
Acts 10:1–11:18
- 15 Can Gentiles Be Included in the Church?
Acts 15:1–35
- 16 What Is to Be Done with the Disciples of John the Baptist?
Acts 18:18–19:20

Conclusion

Appendix A: Which Day Must We Observe?

Romans 14:5–6

Appendix B: What Can We Eat?

Romans 14:6; 1 Corinthians 8:1–13