

Jonah and the Fish's Dinner

Jonah is running away! He doesn't want to go where God told him, so he runs away to sea. A storm blows up. The ship is sinking! Jonah says, "Throw me overboard!" He nearly drowns – but God sends a great fish to gobble him up.

Find the Jonah water picture in the pocket at the back of the book. Wet it with your Puddle Pen to find out what happens next.

Jonah is in the fish's tummy for three whole days! But at last the fish spits him out. Jonah is safe – but very wet! After his adventures he decides, "Now I'll go to Nineveh as God told me."

You can read this story in the book of Jonah

Daniel and the Hungry Lions

Daniel is the king's friend. But one day the king makes a new law. "No one must pray to God," he orders. But still Daniel prays to God each morning and night. Some men see him and run to the king. "Great king!" they say sneakily. "We've seen Daniel praying." So they rush Daniel to the lion pit and throw him in.

Find the Daniel water picture in the pocket at the back of the book. Wet it with your Puddle Pen to find out what happens next.

Even in the lion pit Daniel prays. "Please save me from the lions!" The lions stop snapping. God shuts their mouths. Daniel is safe! In the morning the king comes. Daniel sits unharmed among the lions. "God has kept him safe," says the king.

You can read this story in Daniel chapter 6

