

Circle C Beginnings Activity Pages

Content

The Circle C Beginnings books and activities guide can be used as a reading curriculum. The activities cover a wide range of historical and language arts-related topics:

- ⇒ Vocabulary and reading comprehension
- ⇒ Geography and map skills
- ⇒ Historical topics related to the 1870s: ranching, cowboys, one-room schoolhouses, 1874 school rules, dime novels, the Yokut Indians, steam trains, state fairs, the U.S. flag, McGuffey readers, “Jesus Love Me” song origin, “America” song, the Presidio fort in San Francisco, a Victorian Christmas
- ⇒ Math and science: egg math, tallying, Venn diagram, creek animals, blue-belly lizards, horse measuring, horse colors, pet care, steam engines
- ⇒ Language arts: write or narrate, Old West idioms, create a dime novel
- ⇒ Character and Bible: character ribbons, character traits, Bible verses
- ⇒ Crafts and “just for fun”: sugar cookies, weave a placemat, mazes, dot-to-dots
- ⇒ Answer key for all six books

Pacing the Activities

Each book takes about 16 days to complete.

The (optional) Circle C Beginnings lapbook activities stretch that to about 24 days per book. It is available in Ebook ($18) or Print ($36) at www.AndiandTaffy.com and covers all six books with unique learning activities not covered in these activity pages.

Assignments are scheduled by day rather than by week, so you can use either a four-day or a five-day school week.

The books are chronological, but they are also stand-alone stories and need not be read in order. (You can read Andi's Circle C Christmas during the holidays, for instance.)

Note: You have permission to copy as many pages from this study guide as you desire for your home or classroom. Not for resale.

Enjoy the adventure!

New Words for Chapters 4-6

Turn back to page 7 in Pony Trouble and find the three words below. Write what each word means.

1. corral _____
_____

2. howdy _____

3. whinny _____

New Words Riddles

Can you guess the word from the riddle clues? Use the word box for help.

4. I am buckled around a horse's head. I keep the bit in place and make sure the horse obeys. What am I? _____

5. This is what happened to Coco's mane when Andi didn't take care of him. It got all _____.

6. Coco does not like to gallop. He would rather walk or _____.

7. I am a toy. When you turn the handle music plays.

Then all of a sudden I jump out and surprise you.

What am I? _____

Color me!

Color the Ponies

Six ponies are trotting across this page. A sentence about Pony Trouble is written near each pony. If the sentence is true, color the pony. If the sentence is NOT true, draw a big X across the pony.

What Are You Afraid Of?

Andi is scared of Henry the Eighth, the big, black rooster. But Riley helps Andi. He chases the rooster.

What are you afraid of? Write about a time when you were afraid. What happened? Did somebody help you?

You may narrate your story to a parent. They can write down what you say. You may also draw a picture.

Who Am I?

Do you know who is who in Andi's family? Write the names of the characters from Pony Trouble in the boxes. One of them has been done for you. When you are finished, you may color the picture if you want.

Help Andi Find Coco . . . A Maze

Coco is missing! Follow the maze from Andi to Coco.
Do not cross any black lines. Stay on the path.

Skinned Alive! Funny Ways to Talk

Have you ever heard someone say it's "raining cats and dogs"?

Has your mom told you to "bite your tongue" or "hold your horses"? Sometimes people use strange words to say something they don't really mean. These are called idioms (id-ee-ums).

Two idioms in Pony Trouble are:

"You are acting too big for your britches."

"I'm going to skin you alive!"

What do these idioms really mean? Can you figure them out? Try it! Draw a line between each funny expression and what it really means.

- |  |   |
|--|---|
| 1. It's raining cats and dogs.                           | • You are grumpy this morning.                    |
| 2. That was a piece of cake!                             | • We are having a loud and noisy rainstorm.       |
| 3. You got up on the wrong side of the bed this morning. | • Slow down! Not so fast!                         |
| 4. Hold your horses!                                     | • That was so easy!                               |
| 5. There's something fishy going on around here.         | • There's something strange going on around here. |
| 6. I'm going to skin you alive!                          | • You are acting like you know everything.        |
| 7. Bite your tongue.                                     | • Stop talking.                                   |
| 8. You are acting too big for your britches.             | • You are in so much trouble!                     |

Andi's Sugar Cookies

Andi ate a sugar cookie while she sat on the fence with Midnight. Midnight liked the cookie as much as Andi did! Here is a recipe you can make with your parents or an older brother or sister. Cut out the recipe on the dotted line to save it for the next time you want to make cookies.

Andi's Sugar Cookies

Turn on the oven to 375 degrees. Wash your hands.

First you need:

2 sticks of soft butter (1 cup)
1/2 cup powdered sugar
1/2 cup white sugar

Do this:

Beat the sugar and butter together with a hand mixer.

Next:

1 egg
1/2 teaspoon vanilla
1/2 teaspoon almond extract

Add the egg, vanilla, and almond extract to the sugar and beat it well.

Last:

2 cups white flour
1/2 teaspoon baking soda
1/2 teaspoon cream of tartar

Mix in the flour, soda, and cream of tartar until the dough is firm and like a big ball.

- ~ Roll the dough into small balls and put them on a cookie sheet.
- ~ Dip the bottom of a glass in sugar and press the cookie balls down a little bit.
- ~ Put the cookie sheet on the top rack in the oven.
- ~ Set the timer for 8 minutes. The cookies are done when they are light brown around the edges. Bake a minute longer if they are not done.
- ~ Use a potholder to remove the cookie sheet. Cool. Enjoy! Yum!

Courage

Doing the right thing in the face of problems or danger, even if I am afraid.

Courage doesn't mean you have no fear.
Courage is acting even when you are afraid.

For each letter in the word "courage," think of one thing you can do to practice having courage. (Ask an older brother or sister to help.)

Examples: "C" Climb a tree

"E" Eat a vegetable I don't like

C _____
O _____
U _____
R _____
A _____
G _____
E _____

Color the picture
